Our Expectations of You

1. In both your verbal testimony and lifestyle, be in agreement with Glad Tidings' mission statement.
2. To choose a servant's attitude – that is, to submit to the leadership of the camp and to seek the interests of the campers and fellow staff above your own.
3. Staff members are not allowed to go to a secluded place with only one camper, regardless of the camper's gender. Unmarried staff members of the opposite sex are not to be alone together in a secluded place.
4. With God's help, do your best to live and work in a way that helps attract people to Jesus Christ.

We are grateful for your interest in serving with us this summer. Our intent is to equip you and minister to you even as you serve the Lord here by serving people.

Be sure to mark May 30-31 (Friday evening through Sunday after lunch) on your calendar for our 2008 Counselor Retreat. Even though you are applying to be a maintenance worker, we would like to have you attend the Counselor Retreat if possible. We will be going over some of the expectations we have for you as a maintenance worker. It will also be a great time for bonding with the other summer camp staff. If you have a schedule conflict, let me know as soon as possible – otherwise we will look forward to seeing you there!
